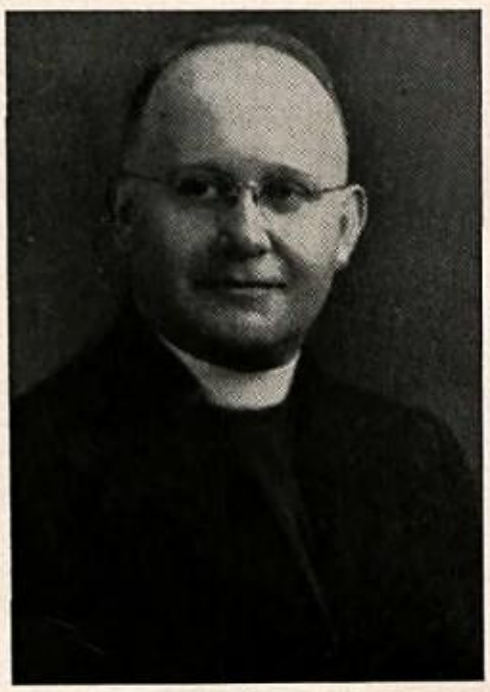
REV. EDWARD J. GORMAN, A.M.

Superintendent of Diocesan Schools

En janvier dernier nous apprenions la nomination du Rév. Père Arthur G. Dupuis comme aumonier à l'orphelinat Saint-Joseph. Il a bien voulu accéder à nos désirs en restant chapelain de la congrégation de la sainte Vierge à l'école Prévost. Pour son dévouement aux intérêts spirituels et temporels de Prévost, nous tenons à lui témoigner notre respect filial et notre vive reconnaissance.

Révérend Père Stanislas Goyette, Directeur de l'école Notre-Dame et vicaire de Notre-Dame-de-Lourdes.



Révérend Père Omer J. Lussier, Vicaire de Notre-Dame-de-Lourdes; aumonier des scouts et de l'équipe Sainte-Bernadette de l'Union Saint-Jean-Baptiste d'Amérique; professeur de religion pour les enfants des écoles publiques.

NOTRE DIRECTEUR

C'est avec joie qu'à la fin de février dernier la nomination du Révérend Père Raymond R. Hamel fut accueillie à Prévost. Il s'est vite acquis l'estime de tous par le vif intérêt qu'il porte au bien spirituel et temporel de lécole. Nous tenons à lui exprimer notre respect et notre profonde reconnaissance.

NOTRE PRINCIPAL

Le Révérend Frère Alexandre est sans contredit l'homme le mieux qualifié pour diriger l'Ecole Supérieure Mgr Prévost. Pendant plus de dix ans, il y fut un des professeurs dévoués et vénérés. En 1940, il devint directeur de l'Ecole Supérieure Saint-Louis de Biddeford qu'il administra jusqu'en 1946; sous sa direction, cet établissement prospéra si bien, les études et les sports y furent si bien organisés qu'il occupe maintenant une position enviable parmi les écoles supérieures du Maine. En septembre dernier, nous fûmes très heureux d'apprendre sa nomination à Prévost; déjà, tout laisse entrevoir une nouvelle ère de prospérité sous son aimable et habile direction.

Au Revoir

Aux finissante de la classe de 1947, l'Alma Mater offre ses meilleurs souhaits de succès et de bonheur. Quelles que soient les routes de la vie où la Providence dirigera vos pas, soyez assurés de sa constante sollicitude, de sen fidèle amour.

Chers finissants, n'oubliez jamais les leçons d'honneur et de loyauté que l'Ecole Supérieure Prévost s'efforça de vous inculquer. Revenez souvent vers ces murs où malgré vous s'attachera toujours un peu de votre âme, vers ces professeurs qui vous instruisirent et vous aimèrent.

Maintenant, ouvrez au grand vent du large qui vous appelle, les voiles de votre barque; nos voeux sont frères de vos espérances.

Votre tout dévoué,

Frère Alexandre,

Supérieur.

SEMPER FIDELIS

Gradué de Prévost, alors que ta nacelle
Quitte le port béni de son Alma mater
Pour se livrer aux flots d'une changeante mer,
Promets sur ton honneur d'être TOUJOURS FIDELE.

Fidèle aux jours sereins quand léger comme une aile
Ton coeur dans son essor voudrait percer l'éther.
Mais fidèle aux temps gris lorsque brille l'éclair
Et que ton âme sent le joug peser sur elle.

Les yeux sur l'idéal, va, mâle adolescent,
Affronter les périls qu'au pilote naissant
Offre le monde vain, abîme de naufrages.

Pratiquant ta devise en ton nouveau milieu,
Demeure fermement, en dépit des mirages,
FIDELE à TON ECOLE et FIDELE à TON DIEU.

Frère Léon-Victor

GEORGES R. BONNAFE
27 Buckley Street

"Keep smiling" seems to be George's motto. His quiet ways and winning personality make of him a favorite with his classmates. When you see a twinkle in his eyes, he is undoubtedly talking of his favorite sport, basketball. Chosen as co-captain, he has successfully led our team to many victories. His jovial and cheerful disposition makes him the epitone of the real friend as well as of the achieved athlete.

FERNAND R. BONNOYER
547 Highland Avenue

Fernand Bonnoyer est le type à l'humeur toujours égale et aux joyeuses réparties. Habituellement réservé, il esquisse constamment un sourire de contentement. "Bony", comme ses camarades l'appellent, a su conserver l'amitté de tous. Il a toujours le mot qui égaye et l'histoire qui groupe un auditoire. En classe, il a des préférences pour la langue de Shakespeare dans laquelle il excelle. Avec son caractère plaisant, nul doute qu'il se fera un avenir fécond et heureux.

EDOUARD L. BOUCHARD
67 California Street

With "Butch" around joy prevails. Either by his witty repartees and his cunning tricks or his ability to bring about a popular strain, he quickly becomes the life of the party. In school, the singing hour is his favorite period. Twice elected president of the Glee Club, he has distinguished himself as a leader in vocal groups. His voice has been quite an asset to the Glee Club. Edouard will certainly decide for a singing career and will write the fame of his name in the annals of the world's leading vocalists.

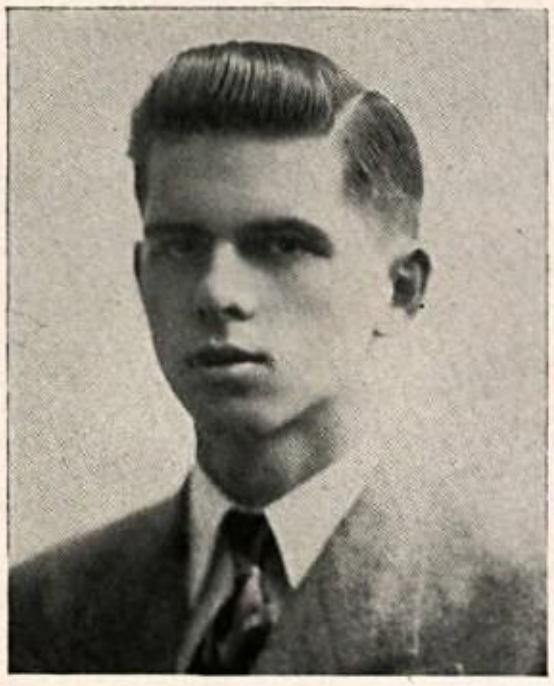
Quiet and unobstrusive, Léopold is always smiling and cheerful. Though he is not among the most studious, yet he is a hard worker especially in mathematics and science. He has already started on his career as a printer by devoting many of his leisure hours at the "Independant". We wish him a successful future in his endeavor to emulate Benjamin Franklin.



LOUIS-PHILIPPE COUSINEAU
22 Milford Road, Swansea

Louis est mieux connu sous le nom de "Cuke". Pendant ses deux années passées à Prévost, il a fait retentir l'école de ses plaisanteries de bon aloi. Pour lui, point n'est besoin de soleil pour mettre la bonne humeur et l'entrain dans un groupe. Entreprenant et dévoué, il se distingue particulièrement par son empressement à rendre service, surtout à l'école. Son esprit de travail et son savoir-faire lui mériteront certainement de réussir dans la vie.

One of the few veterans who has joined our midst last September he has beyond doubt become an important member of our class. He not only increased our number by one point but added his stock of enthusiasm and good cheer as well. A natural born "Jimmy Dorsey", he is well on his career as an orchestra leader. We wish him good luck wherever he will go, and assure him that he leaves behind only fond memories and an enduring friendship.

Raymond est l'homme de toutes les activités: les arts oratoires et dramatiques aussi bien que l'art musical occupent une grande partie de son temps. Aimable et dévoué, entreprenant et studieux, il a vite conquis l'estime et l'affection de ses condisciples qui l'ont élu vice-président de la classe. Nous lui souhaitons une carrière fructueuse dans le monde des affaires.

"Where's Al?" All is the center of the gayest group on the campus. He delights his audience with his wit; and his repartees call for more teasing. In class, he can be very serious, but will not miss an opportunity to lighten the heavy atmosphere of some days with pranks all his own. He is a jolly good fellow, a friend to all. He likes typing, and talking, thus probably preparing his future as an Associated Press reporter.

Throughout his High School, Clément always kept that buoyant character he typifies so well. He has kept a flawless record. Voici le lilliputien de la classe. Certes, celui que nous appelons affectueusement "Frankie" n'est pas de taille à enfoncer la porte du succès, mais il possède tant d'ingéniosité qu'il saura bien l'ouvrir de quelque façon. Caractère enjoué, actif, il ne saurait rester longtemps en repos. Il sait taquiner avec tant d'à-propos et si peu de malice qu'on ne pourrait lui en vouloir. Il croit volontiers que les "bonnes confitures sont dans les petits pots."

Pierre is a congenial individual, who forces his way into the hearts of others almost at first sight. He is a happy-go-lucky lad, as we all have discovered and doubtless will not let the cares of the busy world weigh too heavily on his shoulder. We all see in him a veritable power house of activity and one cannot put limits to the worlds this young man may conquer in the years to come. May his life be ever crowned with successful ventures.

Il a su plus d'une fois nous égayer par ses saillies spirituelles. "Andy"—comme on aime à l'appeler—sait aussi entrer en discussion sans que jamais ses adversaires ne perdent l'affection et l'estime qu'ils ont pour lui, car le débat finit toujours heureusement. Il sera regretté de toute la classe de '47; nous lui souhaitons bonheur et succès dans le chemin de la vie.

He believes in the old saying, "Work while you work, play while you play". He is as serious in school as he is joyful and active on the campus. He finds in volleyball, softball and football a diversion from the labor of his studies. His qualities, both moral and intellectual, are strong assets that will undoubtedly pay him large dividends in the future.

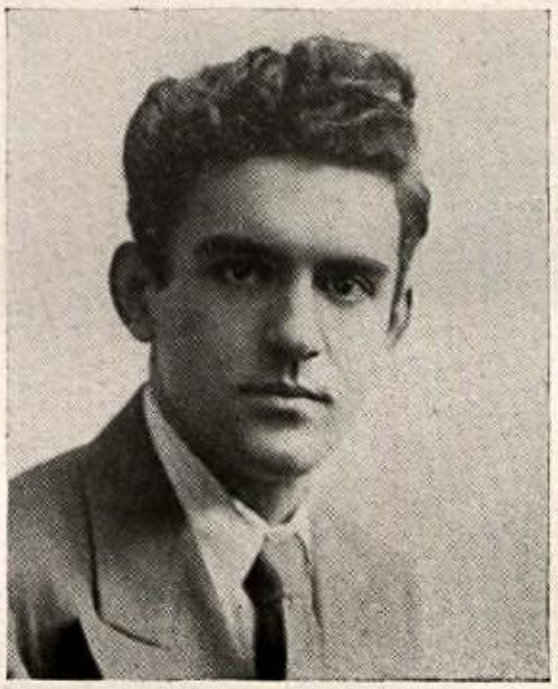
His jovial nature and upright integrity will not be long in achieving the success which he so well deserves. Our heartfelt wishes accompany him.



RAYMOND J. TARVIS

Raymond est un vétéran de la Grande Guerre II. Après avoir servi deux ans dans la marine, il est revenu finir son cours d'études à Prévost. C'est l'élève tranquille et studieux par excellence. Il ne fera jamais de peine à personne. Chez lui tout est douceur; le ton de la voix, le regard et les manières. Il croit dans l'adage "Petit train va loin". Modèle de réserve et de distinction, calme, posé, fin causeur tout de même, c'est bien là le portrait de René. En conversation, il n'aura jamais le mot qui blesse; toujours, il saura trouver l'expression qui charme et qui plaît. Sans doute qu'il doit cela à son âme musicale. Il excelle surtout au piano où il déploie une dextérité, une habileté qui tient du virtuose. Nous formulons des voeux pour que le conservatoire de Boston lui ouvre ses portes et l'admette au nombre de ses membres pour l'honneur de Prévost et de toute la ville de Fall River.

Class History

It's September 1943. On the school campus, we were seventy young people attempting to read the future in the faces of the veteran students and the teachers around us. We soon tackled our studies. High school subjects, especially algebra and Latin, rather baffled us at first. Nevertheless we made of that year a real success. Returning in September 1944, we sorrowfully learned that a few boys had left. Despite this loss the class of 1917 carried on faithfully and courageously through the trying sophomore year.

Upon assuming our duties as Juniors we engaged in more serious subjects. We fought valiantly to master them so as to prepare ourselves fully for our last year at Prevost. Ah! what a beautiful note that word struck! Seniors! Early in September, as the G. I. Bill of Rights was soon coming to an end, nine boys left for the service. They were: Raymond Giasson, Daniel Latendresse, Samuel Ford, Armand Roy, Lucien Pineau, Alban Caron, Gerard Goyette, John O'Neil and Gerard Duquette.

During our four years at Prevost, the class of 1947 was a true example of school spirit, for we took part in all the activities, namely, the School Paper, Dramatics, Sodality, Baseball, Basketball, Glee Club, and Orchestra. Graduation draws near. Soon we will enter life and face its uncertainties, always remembering our Alma Mater and living up to our motto: "Semper Fidelis".

Class Prophecy

We now take you twenty years beyond time in the year of Our Lord nineteen hundred and sixty-seven. The presidency of the Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Company of the New England Division keeps me quite busy in Boston.

Sometime ago, after a busy day I sent my pretty secretary home and reached for my hat and coat when the door of the office swung open and in walked a short stubby little fellow with a broad smile on his face. I immediately recognized him as my old classmate Roger (Tuffy) Phenix. He was the owner of a booming construction company of Hartford, Conn., specializing in roofing and submitted to me plans that I had asked two months ago on a Warehouse and Bakery to be built in Fall River. We both agreed on a first-rate place to have dinner and look over the plans, at the "Royal Room" of an elaborate "nite spot" owned and operated by Roger (Red) Roy, one of our former classmates. As we walked in, our ears caught the sound of wonderful music which sounded familiar to us. It turned out to be Russ Carlton's Band, (Roswell Couture) featuring Joe Valcourt at the keyboard and no one else but Clement Dufour vocalizing. Instantly we were greeted by the owner himself, Mr. Roy, who seated us at a corner table and we began talking of old times at Prevost.

I suddenly noticed the beautiful colored fluorescent lights lining the ceiling, then Mr. Roy told us that it was due to the electrical ingenuity of Maynard & Tarvis, co-owners of New England's largest Electrical Contracting Co.

As we were about to leave, our eyes caught sight of a handsomely dressed man and his pretty wife about to seat themselves nearby. Of all people to meet in a Boston night club, it was Fernand Bonnoyer who was now head coach of sports at Prevost. He informed us that the Prevost basketball team was playing in the inter-state tournament here at Boston Garden and was favored to take top honors. By this time it was getting late and we had to bid our former classmates good-bye.

Roger invited me to spend the week-end with him in Fall River to renew old acquaintances. We were both anxious to arrive in Fall River. Driving along the highway near Somerset I heard a knock in the motor and I pulled up to the nearest gas station. To my astonishment the attendant turned out to be no one else but Philippe Cousineau. He remedied the knock in a jiffy.

R. Lavoie

He was glad to see us because he had not met one of his old classmates since Raymond Lavoie, now a truck driver for Gamache Trucking, had come for gas quite a few times on his trips from Fall River to Newburyport, Mass. After a short conversation we proceeded to our old home town.

Arriving through the city limits we noticed a huge billboard reading: Cast Your Ballot For Roland Larrivee As Mayor Of Fall River. We were not the least bit surprised to see how our zealous class president had obtained political reknown and we knew the election would be an easy victory for him. We then proceeded to Roland's apartment and had a good night's sleep. The next day being Saturday, Roland told me he had to see Mr. Raymond (Mike) Francoeur for outside painting and interior decorating for a building he had just completed in the Highlands. We visited Mr. Francoeur, who had made a success of his interior decoration enterprise. During a short business chat he informed us that during his spare time he was taking flying lessons at George Bonnafé's flying school. After flying for the Northeastern Airlines, George had decided to start an aviation school that proved to be a great success. "Mike" also told us that Mr. Bonnafé had tried to hire "Pete" Gagnon as flying instructor but "Pete" refused the offer because he had signed a contract with the government as their chief test pilot of the ever-popular jet planes.

Leaving "Mike's" office and riding smoothly down Pleasant Street, we noticed a flashy blue truck with large letters, reading: E. L. Bouchard, Fruit & Produce. We blew the horn and attracted "Butch's" attention. As soon as he recognized us he swerved around the corner and parked on a side street; we followed and parked directly behind him. After conversing for a while he told us that his business now was prosperous and that he had just made a delivery to Alexandre Doré, owner of Fall River's largest fruit store. We suddenly heard the sound of fire apparatus nearing the place where we were standing. The store on the corner appeared to have a chimney fire. Hurying to the scene, we were surprised to see that it was Walter Ouellet's Upholstery Store. However, Walter was just as calm as during his schooldays. Not long after, the Fire Chief's brilliant sedan pulled up in front of us. "Clear the way, folks", were the first words said by the chief. I immediately recognized the voice as being that of Armand Melanson who was now Fire Chief of Fall River. Departing from the scene of the fire we proceeded to the downtown area of Fall River, to have a light lunch at Liggett's Drug. Half way through our lunch we noticed two gentlemen talking at the counter. We recognized them as André Giroux and Raymond (Duffy) Dufour. They told us they were both Certified Public Accountants and Realtors and that André had taken over his father's business and Raymond's Office was in the Academy building. Raymond told us that the office of Lionel Cadrin, D.D.S., was adjacent to his. Lionel was getting along very nicely in the work he had always loved. Walking out of the drug store we accidentally bumped into Mr. Léopold Clapin and he informed us that he and his brother were the owners of the "L'Indépendant", the French Daily Newspaper, which was formerly owned by his father. He spoke to us about his very good friend Adrien Olivier, who had just returned from a very successful career as officer in the Navy. He also told of Roméo (Farmer) Parent who had become Sales Manager of the International Harvaster Company. Driving up South Main Street we observed some men renovating a store; glancing at the sign, we read: "Opening soon; Bertrand Lachance's Art Studio". We could see that Bertrand had finally made his hobby into a profession. We could not overlook the opportunity of speaking with him, but unfortunately he was nowhere to be found. Going back to our apartment we planned to visit more of our classmates after hearing mass Sunday morning.

Here we are, Sunday morning, leaving for mass at Notre Dame church. It was not until the offertory at mass that we perceived the celebrant to be no other than Reverend Fernand C. Thibault. After mass we hastened to the sacristy to greet him. He told us that he had become a Maryknoll missionary and had completed 10 years of missionary work in the Orient and was home for a well-earned vacation. He asked us if we knew the pastor of Notre-Dame Church and to our surprise, told us that it was Mgr. Edmond Lévesque, P.R., who had followed in his brother's footsteps. Father Thibault invited us to breakfast with him and Mgr. Lévesque at the rectory. We obliged him and had a very good breakfast, after which we agreed to visit our Alma Mater.

The Prevost grammar school was now located on the site of the former Eastern Avenue School. On a spot of Lafayette Park which was known as Prevost Hill now stood a two-story building inside of which was the long-awaited Prevost Gym and Auditorium. The High School itself was a newly remodeled building with the facilities of a cafeteria, a completely enlarged library and a fully equipped workshop and printing room. Glancing to the left we observed a familiar person arriving. He was no other than Brother Ernest, our former class moderator. Despite a life of hard work, time had been lenient on his features; he was now principal and success adorned his work.

He greeted us in the same manner he used to when we were Seniors at Prevost. He brought us into his private office and called our attention to two clippings, that he had just pasted in his scrapbook. One of them read: "Philip Peters resigns position as U. S. Senator to accept Presidential appointment as envoy to the Near East and ambassador to Syria and Lebanon." The other was of Paul J. Peloquin, who had become president of the Anchor Hocking Glass Company and who was now a prominent figure on Wall Street.

Brother Ernest turned on the radio when to our surprise we heard that Denis Goulet, the jockey who had ridden "Trotting Irene" to fame at the Kentucky Derby, was married to a local girl.

Bidding farewell to our old friends we paused to look back at Prevost in reminiscence of those playfull years which we now envied with deep appreciation.

We now look upon Prevost as a main factor, for our success in life and as a major stepping-stone to future generations.

Class Will

We, the Seniors of the Class of 1947, being of sound intellectual mentality and of bodily health do hereby leave and bequeath to our heirs the incoming Senior Class of 1948 the following items:

JUNIOR A

To LEONARD BERUBE: A partnership with Samuel Goldwyn, as Berube-Goldwyn Movies Inc., so he can babble all he wants behind desks, fat cigars, and stuffy collars.

To RENE BOUCHARD: The boy of "You Haven't Got The Zip Fame", the Seniors bequeath the pleasure of leading the Conga line at the Waldorf Astoria.

To ROBERT BOUSQUET: The managership of Liggett's Drug Store so he can give his classmates free coffee cabinets.

To GERALD COTE: A wardrobe of fine Anderson & Little suits in order to wear a new apparel every time he goes to a party.

To REGINALD DESNOYERS: The privilege of heading the Red Sox Farm system and thus make Boston a leading contender along with the Philadelphia A's for the American League Cellar.

To HECTOR DION: A '47 Studebaker to come to school on time and a visit his friends in California during the coming summer days.

To ROMEO FORTIN: The honor of capturing Jimmy Dorsey's title as the World's Best Saxophonist.

To ROLAND FRAZIER: The presidency of the American Bowling National Congress with eight pretty brunettes as his stenographers.

To ARMAND GAGNON: A fat salary as the Red Sox batboy so he can realize his ambition of entering a Pharmacy school.

To ROMEO GUIMOND: His lifetime ambition—a Congressional appointment to West Point and the Captaincy of the baseball team with an affixed 370 batting average so he can participate in his favorite sport.

To ROBERT HOUDE: The chairmanship of the American Orators Association, in which he may talk his life away.

To PIERRE LAJOIE:A scholarship to Harvard Medical School where he can make All-American tackle on the football squad—We hope!

To GERARD LAMONTAGNE: The privilege of wearing stilts to become the tallest member of next year's Senior Class and thus meet the height requirement of the Navy.

To PHILIPPE LAVOIE: We leave behind a sufficient amount of courage to break the ice and ask his best friend for a date.

To GEORGE LEBREUX: The exemption from being initiated into the Bonnoyer, Dion, Lavoie, Routhier, & Bonnafe Inc., Henchmen Gang.

To ARMAND LEVESQUE: Authority to win the 1957 Academy Award after his great hit entitled "Cassanova Armand Loves Again", so he could now extol his achievements to his heart's content to willing reporters.

To LAURENT MARCHAND: The pleasure of alternating his Latin I, II, and III marks to 90's thus enabling him to enter Pharmacy College and become head chemical mixer at Bellefeuille's Drug Store.

To ANDRE MOREAU: The right to displace B. Goodman or Woody Herman as America's foremost clarinetist.

To ROBERT RENAUD: A Ph. D. in mathematics so he can teach pupils at M. I. T. the unknowns of Algebra, until they hurl their textbooks at him.

To ARMAND ROUTHIER: In addition to the privilege of taking girls home after games, the possibility of getting up off the floor a little more often so Prevost can have five hoopsters instead of four and have a chance to win a game.

JUNIOR B

To LEO BARNABY: A specially constructed 7 foot bed plus the privilege of coming to school at 10:00 a. m. during his Senior Year.

To BERNARD BARSELOU: A dozen sport jackets made with a bright red, his favorite color, so his best friend may spot him a mile away.

To GEORGE BEAUDOIN: The honor of being the president of his father's contracting firm, with his own Packard however, so his father won't have to worry over auto casualties.

To EDWARD BERARD: After wearing his jalopy out attending nine different schools, we leave him $50 for his junk, so he can purchase a shaving kit and rid the Juniors of the awful view of his beard.

To RAYMOND BERNIER: We will a new Ediphone, the device that types as he dictates so Brother Marcel's type period won't drive the impatient boy to an asylum.

To RAYMOND BERUBE: The proprietorship of Neveu's Market with his bosses working for him—for a change.

To RENE CADRIN: We give the ownership of the Lafayette Drug Store so that he may lure "Pleasant" prospects and create an extensive pleasant clientele.

To ANDRE CHAGNON: The honor of being elected the most quiet and mysterious character of next year's Senior Class.

To JEAN-LOUIS CLAPIN: An automatic feeding spoon so that he can eat ice-cream while driving his father's car.

To NORMAND DESROSIERS: The right to capture the fame of a "Rubinoff" as one of the world's best violinists.

To ALBERT DUSSAULT: A permit to park with his dad's car at Talbot's corner without interference from the police and observe the pedestrians stroll by.

To ARTHUR GAMACHE: A dozen of the green polka-dot ties he so proudly wears so the nice girls he brags about in Somerset, (which incidentally he thinks is the world's capital) can notice him.

To MAURICE GIRARD: We leave him heir to a $50,000 estate so he won't always be "broke" and drain his friends' financial resources.

To GILBERT GUIMOND: The privilege of driving his father's best milk truck and the favor of milking the cows daily.

To MAURICE HAMEL: We bequeath to the class poet and humorist the right to introduce and sell variously shaped pipes at Prevost games; these may have any shape from the base saxophone shape to that of a trombone and they may puff like locomotives during Prevost games.

To CHARLES LAFOND: We leave this starry-eyed Eddie Cantor of Junior B a year's treatment in a beauty parlor where they can cultivate his peruke so that he may make a fortune selling it to a Hollywood Stage Contractor.

To DONALD LAPIERRE: To the curly-haired, blushing, blue-eyed pianist is left the pleasure of answering 20,000 fan mail letters by people who think he outdoes Frankie carle in the Boogie Woogie Beat....

To RENE LATINVILLE: After a nationwide survey of the leading music critics, the honor to be unanimously elected to replace Frank Sinatra... as the voice of the Bobby-Soxers.

To WILLIAM LEBLANC: A life position as professor of English Literature at Harvard where he can teach students to become as proficient as he is in English composition.

To ROGER MORIN: The right to be nominated the most handsome American Boy of '48 since his classmates consider him the best-looking member of their class.....

To ANDRE PARADIS: We bequeath "Sunshine", alias "Tutty" or "Putty", a bread and cake bakery where he can have enough to subdue his appetite and thus no longer rob his friends at Mark You's Restaurant.

To MARCEL ROBILLARD: We leave behind a job photographing the beauties of nature: he may travel as a relaxation.

To ALBERT TREMBLAY: We leave the privilege of replacing Fred Astaire as Hollywood's best tapdancer, and be admired the world over.

To ARTHUR VALCOURT: A scholarship at M. I. T. where his noisy and mischievous temper may experiment with volts and kilowatts until he's nearly electrocuted.

Sodality of the Blessed Virgin

Rejuvenated by the organization of four parallel sections, the Sodality, during this current year, was in a better position to call for vigorous action.

The officers, in their "Council Vigil Hours", carefully planned the spiritual and temporal projects proposed to the organization in the "Semester Outline". Fernand Thibault, general prefect, assisted by Adrien Olivier, vice-prefect, Romeo Guimond, secretary, and George Dubé, treasurer, accomplished a remarkable work, and credit is due to them for their devotedness.

Mentioning but a few of the Sodality projects that marked the year 1946-1947, we may single out the Catholic Book Exhibit, the Communion Breakfast, the Charity Drive for the poor, the five pilgrimages, the Vocation Week, the Crusade for masses and communions during Lent, the Amateur Night, the Bowling League the Stamp Club, and the various crusades for better prayers and better living.

Under the protection of the Blessed Mother, we have worked to restore Christ in our hearts and in the hearts of our schoolmates; we dedicated our lives to furthering His interests on earth by implanting His teachings into our souls and by harkening to His voice at all times.

Our slogan for the past year was "Render Thy Leisures Wholesome". That may we live up to it through this summer is the vow expressed by our devoted chaplain and moderators.

BASKETBALL. Our hopes of landing the Narry League bunting were ruthlessly shattered as early as September by a double-barreled shot. Brother George, last year's qualified mentor, had been transferred to Plattsburg, N. Y. Then, the armed services lured four lettermen away and left the incoming coach with a handful of stamina-loaded fledglings lacking but two things beyond their control: heights and experience. Terry McMahon, a very earnest young man, pick ed up the coaching reins and undertook the almost superhuman task of moulding a fighting aggregation able to battle such giants as Diman, Dartmouth, Somerset and Dighton. Unfortunately, circumstances forced him to resign as the season was getting underway. On January 9th, Fred Wolstencroft, star basketball and baseball player in the City League, was appointed to direct our hardwood proceedings. He piloted the team to two straight victories over Westport and Bristol Aggies. But in spite of his invaluable experience and tireless efforts, his team had to bow to marked superiority. Co-captain George Bonnafe was the spark plug in many a rugged contest. His unparalleled spirit and his arduous work are to be congratulated. Fernand Bonnoyer, the other co-captain, was our one-handed shot artist. Armand Routhier, our human dynamo, never yielded an inch until the final whistle. Phil Lavoie, probably the shortest Varsity member in the Narry League was a constant thorn in our opponents' side. Hector Dion, a capable playmaker was the "man of the hour" in many a critical situation. Our Jayvee team, composed chiefly of Freshmen hoopsters, deserve a special tribute for their remarkable achievement. They won ten of their fourteen league games. The outstanding player was undoubtedly Rene Banville whose coolness and natural ability were highly praised by rival coaches. However, without the unselfish contributions of Robert Renaud, Roger Morin, Ronald Duval, "Zeke" Valiquette, Maurice Clairmont, William Labrie, Romeo Fortin, and Leonard Levasseur, such an enviable record would not have been compiled. With the return of all but two of these boys, Prevost can smile at the future and look for great things in this indoor sport. The hopes for a perenial leadership in sports will come when the gym and other athletic accommodations are part of the school grounds.

BASEBALL. Late in March over sixty baseball enthusiasts trotted on the field to display their baseball capabilities under the uncanny eye of our enthusiastic, "champion" coach Nick Olivier. Graduation and the G. I. Bill of Rights brought havoc in our baseball spad claiming the whole team with the exception of Albert Tremblay. Therefore, the coach is faced with the ungrateful task of rebuilding a team with raw recruits. Few, if any, Narry League teams can boast of a string of twenty straight games and two championships over a two-year span. When a coach has tasted the sweet fruit of victory at the helm of a school outfit, he could be excused for nurturing a feeling of discouragement when he suddenly is faced with so bleak a project. Fortunately, Nick Olivier does not belong to this class. His overbubbling enthusiasm, stamina and determination are just as genuine and communicative as his first two years at Prevost. This is a great credit to a great coach. The pitching department, minus Al Pelletier, is reduced to a skeleton. However, three Freshmen flingers: Rene Thibault, Louis Boulay and Gerard Guimond should provide the backbone of our future hurling corps. Armand Routhier is counted upon to handle efficiently our rookie pitchers' slants. Albert Tremblay is the only boy with a certain amount of experience and the coach is looking to him to carry the burden of pitching Prevost to victory. Batting will be the major factor that will decide who will hold down the other positions. The candidates for the remaining berths are as follows: Armand Levesque, Raymond Guerette, and Maurice Hamel, pitchers; M. Dumont, G. Plante, R. Frazier, N. Valiquette, H. Dion, H. Mercier, W. Dickinson and R. Guimond, infielders; P. Lavoie, G. Lebreux, R. Landry, R. Renaud will patrol the outfield. The fans may look forward to see a hustling, aggressive and determined group of boys going all out to win for their school and their beloved coach.

Our School Newspaper

The school year 1946-1947 marked the greatest improvement ever made in the journalistic field at Prevost. Accomplishment being the by-word among the members of the staff, they have certainly lived up to it. Indeed, the "Prevost" has made a definite stride towards progress.

A regular printed school paper has been the cherished dream of both faculty and students ever since the very first issue of the "Newsletter" in 1944. Its realization in an up-to-date format and presentation is due to the inspiration of Rev. Brother Alexander, Principal, and the generous contributions of friends and benefactors.

Continuing its policy of a paper for the students and by the students, the "Prevost" appeared every other month carrying new features that sought to interest all subscribers. A section was still devoted to our graduates in the solumns entitled: "Alumni Notes". However, greater emphasis was laid on school activities. The general news and such colemns as "Tattle-Tale Hale" and "Hip-Hap-Hop-Hoop", proved very enjoyable to all readers.

Through the excellent cooperation of Brother Ernest, Brother Augustus and Brother Simeon, the publication was always well supplied with photographic cuts which so clearly brought to life all campus activities. Cartoonists Bertrand Lachance and Edward Bouchard in artistic caricatures revived the humoristic highlights of the Prevost World.

The press is a great weapon today in combating false and shallow thinking. It is a misconception to think of a school newspaper as of a gossip sheet. The times demand writers with ideas, breadth of vision, and the ability to put in words the soul of things whether it be in the interpretation of the news or in articles of literary merit.

The '46-'47 staff feels proud of the work it has accomplished and extends, to next year's journalistic class, its best wishes for continued success.

Un Vingtième Anniversaire et Un Dixième Anniversaire

A l'occasion de la dixième graduation et du vingtième anniversaire de l'école, il fait bon de revivre un peu le passé et de se rappeler ici la noble et sympathique figure de Mgr. Jean A. Prévost. Comme nous le savons tous, les jours grandioses du cinquantième anniversaire de la paroisse couronnèrent sa vie si bien remplie. Mais au millieu de ces jours glorieux, une pensée le hantait, une pensée chère à son coeur: avoir une école paroissiale pour les garçons, spécialement les plus grands, sous la direction des Frères. En maintes circonstances, il en a parlé. Revivons quelques instants ces belles pages du passé.

Le huit juin 1925, les Frères de l'Instruction Chrétienne recevaient de Mgr. J. A. Prévost lui-même l'invitation de venir à Fall River et d'ouvrir une école pour les jeunes franco-américains dans la paroisse Notre-Dame de Lourdes. Il fut alors entendu que l'inauguration aurait lieu en septembre 1927. Mais le seize septembre 1925, Dieu appelait à lui son digne serviteur qui devait présider de Là-Haut à la réalisation de ce beau rêve qu'il avait caressé une partie de sa vie.

Le sept Janvier 1926, le révérend Père Louis-Damase Robert alors curé de la paroisse Saint-Roch recevait de son Excellence Mgr. Daniel F. Feehan, sa nomination à la cure de Notre-Dame-de-Lourdes. Il se mit vite à l'oeuvre et le huit juin 1926, il achetait des Rév. Soeurs Grises de l'orphelinat Saint-Joseph un lot alors vacant près du parc Lafayette sur l'avenue Eastern.

A la fête du Sacré-Coeur, en juin 1926, sur ce terrain eut lieu une touchante cérémonie. Les enfants de l'école Notre-Dame se rendirent processionellement, drapeau du Sacré-Coeur en tête, à l'endroit même ou devait s'édifier le nouveau bâtiment. Mgr. D. Robert présidait et l'on pouvait compter parmi les assistants le Rév. Père Bérubé et le Rev. Père Cournoyer alors vicaire de Notre-Dame et également les Soeurs de Jésus-Marie. Tour à tour, tous ceux qui assistaient furent invités à soulever une pelletée de terre en geste symbolique inaugurant les travaux d'excavation: alors avec quelle joie les Rév. Soeurs durent-elles poser ce geste, elles qui étalent si à l'étroit à l'école Notre-Dame. La construction progressa si bien que le vingt avril 1927, un bon nombre d'élèves de l'école Notre-Dame, sous la direction des Rév. Soeurs, venait finir l'année dans la nouvelle école.

En septembre de la même année, ce nouvel édifice ouvrait ses portes sous la direction des Frères au nombre de sept alors et de cinq professeurs laiques. Trois cent soixante-dix élèves s'inscrivirent et furent répartis en onze classes. La date de la bénédiction fut fixée au onze septembre, mais en ce jour-là, une pluie torrentielle força les autorités à remettre la cérémonie au dimanche qui suivit, c'est-à-dire le dix-huit septembre. Cette fois, la température fut idéale. Sur le parc, en face de l'école, on avait élevé une estrade pour Mgr. l'évêque et les autres dignitaires. Son Excellence Mgr. Feehan présidait. A ses côtés figuraient le Rév. Père L.-D. Robert, le Rév. Père Télesphore Grenier, orateur de circonstance, son honneur le maire de la ville M. W. Harry Monks, le surintendant des écoles publiques M. Hector L. Belisle, le Rév. Père Edmund J. S. Ward, chancelier du diocèse, et autres invités d'honneur, clercs et laiques. Des centaines de personnes assistaient autour de l'estrade. Un prélude, sous la direction du professeur A. Lapierre et avec l'accompagnement de la fanfare Saint-Antoine ouvrit la cérémonie. Le Rév. Père Grenier prononça ensuite un sermon approprié très goûté de l'assemblée. Ensuite, le Père Louis-Damase Robert dédia l'école à la mémoire éternelle de son saint et vénéré prédécesseur, puis il la présenta au pays, à l'état, au diocèse et à la paroisse. Son Excellence Mgr. Feehan fit ensuite l'éloge des paroissiens qui avaient contribué si généreusement à l'érection de cet édifice, puis il bénit l'école selon les rites de la sainte Eglise. La bénédiction de la foule et le chant enthousiaste de "Star Spangled Banner" et de "O Canada" couronnèrent ce beau jour.

ECOLE SUPERIEURE MGR PREVOST HIGH SCHOOL
DEO ET SOLI
FALL RIVER MASS

Dès la première année, Prévost laissa vite entrevoir de belles espérances pour l'avenir. La marche ascendante de toutes les oeuvres bien lancées caractérise Prévost. En 1928, le nombre des Frères augmentait de sept à dix et tous les locaux étaient remplis; bientôt l'exiguïté allait se faire sentir, spécialement en 1934, quand s'ouvrit le neuvième cours. Alors, trente-sept jeunes gens s'enrégistrèrent en septembre, prémices de l'école supérieure actuelle. Les années qui suivirent virent ce nombre s'accroître et en 1941, près de cent "freshmen" franchissaient le seuil de Prévost. Depuis plus de dix ans, l'école souffre du manque d'espace et au point de vue matériel, elle manque de presque toutes les commodités d'un "High School" moderne. La bibliothèque, d'ailleurs insuffisante quand au nombre des volumes, a dû être logée dans l'ancien bureau du principal et celui-ci a dû se réfugier dans un vestiaire loin de la porte d'entrée de l'école. Malgré son exiguïté, cette salle de bibliothèque sert également de classe. On doit aussi faire la classe dans le corridor du deuxième étage; même le laboratoire sert pour une période de religion. Les élèves de latin se rappelleront également la classe au grand air sur les marches du perron en dehors de l'école. Faute de cafétéria, les élèves prennent leur dîner dans les classes et s'il pleut, force leur est d'y rester car il n'y a aucun genre de salle méme petite où ils puissent prendre leurs ébats. Mais ce qui manque le plus, c'est un auditorium et un gymnase qui permettent les réunions d'ensemble et la culture physique. Il est donc difficile d'avoir des concours oratoires ou tout autre genre d'organisation à fins éducatives. Dans le domaine des sports, Prévost est-il mieux favorisé? Assez peu. Tout d'abord, jusqu'ici l'école n'a pu commencer d'équipe de "football" faute de champ d'exercice. Pour le ballon au panier, nos élèves doivent se rendre à la salle du C. Y. O. pour laquelle la paroisse doit chaque année payer loyer. Le seul sport pour lequel les garçons aient quelque facilité, c'est la balle-au-camp: la proximité du parc Lafayette en favorise de beaucoup l'organisation des exercices et parties.

Malgré toute cette pénurie matérielle, Prévost va de l'avant et les élèves y affluent. Un aimant mystérieux les attire. Pour eux, seule l'école catholique peut répondre à leur idéal; seule, elle leur donnera cette éducation complète pour le coeur et l'esprit, pour l'âme tout entière; seule, elle leur donnera ces principes de vie pour l'éternité. Aussi viennent-ils y puiser ce nectar qui préservera et leurs croyances et leur religion. Avec ces vues surnaturelles ils nourrissent cependant dans leur coeur une pensée: c'est qu'un jour, ils voient s'élever à côté du bâtiment déjà existant les salles de bibliothèque, auditorium, gymnase et cafétéria et autres tant désirées. Sans doute qu'au temps de Mgr Robert, ils sont venus près d'avoir ce qu'ils convoitaient; un auditorium devait s'élever dans la cour de l'école, mais l'ouragan de 1938 a détourné les fonds vers des réparations plus urgentes. L'an dernier, sous la direction du Rév. Père Jalbert, les fidèles de Notre-Dame ont montré une générosité plus qu'ordinaire en donnant plus de $50,000 en vue d'une salle paroissiale qui aurait servi en même temps d'auditorium et de gymnase pour l'école Prévost, mais de nouveau la réalisation de ce rêve est remise à plus tard. L'espoir cependant vit encore dans le coeur des élèves, espoir dont la réalisation permettrait à une oeuvre si belle de grandir et de s'épanouir.

To Prevost High GRADUATES

This is the day of specialization—in medicine, law, engineering, chemistry, and business.
Attend a good school of specialization after high school. Go to college, if you can.
For specialization in the fields of business or civil service, we modestly suggest our school, with its corps of capable and enthusiastic instructors, all of whom have had personal experience as business employees. Registration for Sept. Term now being received.
We offer courses in

- ACCOUNTING
- SECRETARIAL SCIENCE
- BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION
- COMMERCIAL FINISHING
